TO FULFILL A VOW MADE IN CHILDHOOD

Martha Bussmann and Elizabeth Sweeny Will Stand at the Altar on Wednesday as Brides.

After the Ceremony There Will Be a Big Reception, and the Couples Will Take Honeymoon Trips on the Lakes.

William Meyer of No. 202 Pope avenue and Martha Bussmann of No. 202 St. Louis avenue and Henry Schaub and Elizabeth Sweeny of No. 788 Bayard avenue, who took out licenses to marry yesterday, will be united on Wednesday. July it, within an hour of each other. Only differences of religion prevent the ceremonies taking place at the same time and in the same church. Subsequent to the weldings the couples will hold a reception together and then will go on a bridal tour. The two young ladies have been lifeloog companions and not even marriage will separate them if they can

Some years ago when Misses Sweeny and Bussmann were little girls and were going to the Webster School, at Eleventh and Clinton streets, they made a vow that the se would be the other's bridesmaid or else both would be married together. The yow will be fulfilled as nearly as it is possible

Though the respective bridegrooms have no connection, there is a little romance attached to Mr. Schaub and Miss Sweeny's courtship. The former is the son of German parents and was born in Berlin. CALL THE BOYS "UPSTARTS." Suburban Girls Angry at Anti-Matrimony Club.

Suburban girls are angry at the action of some of the youngsters of Maplewood and Shrewsbury, who took the responsibility upon themselves of swearing that they would never marry, and who further stigmatized the sex by saying that girls were "no use." The girls are just as violent in condemping the boys, and remark that it is a strange thing that boys of 15 have much less sense than girls of the same age. The girls seemed to think that the boys who expressed such sentiments were "little upstarts" and not deserving of anything but a wholesome spanking.
"Girls are no use!" indignantly exclaimed one of the girls. "Why, I wonder if those hoys think they are any use with their hair pulling and rudeness, their dirty faces and hands. Pshaw, they ought to be put to bed by their mammas."

DEMOCRATIC TICKET RATIFIED.

TO PERPETUATE SHERIFF'S POSSE

Committee Decides to Include Those Who Served in a Permanent Organization.

Sheriff Pohlman Compliments Col. Cavender, Captain Webster and Major Hanley, Giving Each a Colt's Revolver.

A committee composed of citizens who served as officers in the posse comitatus met at the Mercantile Club last night and decided to undertake at once the permanent organization of those who constituted the rank and file of the posse. The meeting was the occasion, also, of a feast of general good fellowship, and the presentation of testimonials for efficiency in service to three of the officers. Colonel J. H. Cavender, Captain George' R. Webster, Adjutant General of the posse, in its power to reinstate all the men as rap- and Major Joseph L. Hanley, Inspector General of the posse, each received as a cift from Sheriff Pohlman a Colt's revolver et Baumhoff yestering morning, and later the division superintendents were called to a conference with Mr. Baumhoff at the general offices of the company at Park and Vandeventer avenues over the list of the names of former employes who are waiting for reinstatement.

Irom Sheriff Pohlman a Colta revolver explosive explaints accompanied by a complimentary letter from the Sheriff, thanking the recipient for the able assistance he had afforded him in the work of handling the posse. Arthur Shepley was appointed Captain and Assistant Adjutant appointed Captain and Assistant Adjutant General, in recognition of the service be had performed while an officer of the posse, The committee consisted of Colonel Ford Smith, Major Joseph L. Hanley, Captains Smith, Major Joseph L. Hanley, Captains J. C. Stewart, George B. Webster, William Freudenau, F. N. Johnson, William E. Fissa and Perry Bartholow, and was appointed in the early part of last week. All who were members of the posse agreed to abide by the committee's action in the matter of the committee's action in the matter of forming a permanent organization.

It was definitely decided that the posse organization should become a permanent thing, thus giving to the city a volunteer organization, which holds treelf ready to turn out at a moment's notice. There will be no drills or discipline connected with the permanent organization. A factor of the constitution which will serve to hold the men together is the social feature which will be injected into it.

The committee provised for a complete cranization. It will embrace the separate companies which already have formed permanent organization. Colonel Cavender was elected the commander militant. The office of president has been left open. The plan of the organization was not decided upon. This will be taken up at the next meeting of the Executive Committee, which will take place this week. Each member of the committee has been asked to submit a plan. The suggestions will be considered, and the best proposition will be adopted.
